The Three Great Purifiers

The Great Blood Purifier

Recommended for the Treatment of Eruptive Skin Diseases, Chronic Catarrh, Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago and All Conditions Caused by Impure Blood

Two of the greatest purifiers in the world are sun and water, and on both depends life.

As a purifier of the blood, no preparation stands higher than Plough's Prescription C-2223. For years and years this liquid prescription was used by a successful physician in his private practice. He found that this particular formula gave the best results to those of his patients who were suffering from some constitutional blood disease. In time this doctor made quite a reputation both for himself and the prescription which he used; today a large number of bottles are required by druggists to supply the demands of those in need of this meritorious preparation.

In the treatment of Chronic Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula and other similar diseases of the blood, Plough's Prescription C-2223 has given relief to thousands. Despairing, helpless sufferers have secured benefit from this liquid prescription where all other advice and treatment had failed.

If you are suffering from a condition caused by bad blood, or you fear that the poisons and accumulations have never been entirely eliminated from your blood, you should begin now and take the Plough's Prescription C-2223 Treatment. This liquid preparation contains no Morphine, Cocaine, Strychnine, Chloral or Mercury; on the other hand, it is composed of certain medicinal ingredients, all of which are well known to medical authorities as being very effective in the treatment of Rheumatic and Blood Troubles. The very best materials and the greatest care are exercised in the preparation of this splendid treatment, so that you can be sure that if you follow the directions given as to its use, you will be greatly benefited if not permanently relieved.

In the treatment of Chronic Rheumatism, Catarrh, Lumbago, Gout and Sciatica and any condition due to bad blood, it is important that the liver be active. To stimulate the liver, relieve constipation and keep the bowels in a healthy condition, Plough's C-2223 Liver Pills are especially recommended. They do not nauseate and can be used by those who cannot stand a dose of calomel or other drastic purgatives.

Plough's Prescription C-2223 can be supplied you ready prepared by druggists at $1.50 a bottle; the Pills at 25c, or if you are unable to get the treatment from your home dealer, send $1.75 to the C-2223 Laboratory, Memphis, and the package will be mailed you postpaid. You can get a free sample of the Pills and literature by writing.

FREEMAN COMPANY PRESENTING LARGE TROUPE AT THE
BOOKER WASHINGTON

George Freeman's three-Sea Players giving the Booker Washington Theatre a merry round of clown, whoopee entertainment this week. The program bristles with humorous complications, a superb arrangement of tunes and laughs, sprightly dances and an unusual display of vivacious and pretty girls. Right from the curtain the performers sing and dance their way to the hearts of their audience.

The present presents the Army and the Navy with not a costume and a comedy to match. There is a medley of character, witty dancing and a drill feature. George Freeman, a versatile and clever comedian, soon arrives on the scene, and with a few revamped witlings gets the house in a twinkling mood. Several good songs and dance specialty numbers follow, with a comical skit called "My Doped Wife" and then the feature scene, "The Scandalous of Pardon Brown," is produced. This Scandalous funny bit of romance strikes at a cord in the crowd and a capital of the land is the result. Freeman, in a grotesque make-up of a washed woman, is the leading character. The show closes in a merry dance for all, singing "Shine On You" and "Stomping the Blues." The entire edifice is clever, the girls pretty and energetic, and the singing harmonious.

"The Girl's Revenge" Next Week. The Freeman Company will present "The Girl's Revenge," an Indian drama of love, determination, hatred, spite and treachery, at the Booker Washington Theatre next week. There is just enough comedy in the production to give it "pop," and a rich display of harmonious melody. Many critics say "The Girl's Revenge" is the best in this capable company's repertoire.

Miss Margaret Johnson, better known as Billy Johnson, on the vaudeville stage, will arrive in St. Louis about December 11 to fill an engagement as entertainer at the Manhattan Cafe. Newstead and Pinaud, Miss Johnson will close in Louisville this week.

"WOLVES OF THE NIGHT"

AT THE JEST-A-MERE

William Farnum, the famous star of William Fox photoplays, will be seen at the Jest-A-Mere Theatre next Sunday and Monday, in his latest feature production, "Wolves of the Night," said to be the most powerfully dramatic picture in which this great screen star has been seen.

The story is of a mining engineer who having sought in vain for ore in his land in the Northwest, has converted it into a sheep ranch. Adjoining is a mining plant in full operation, owned by three men who covet his property.

Miss Bruce Andrews, portrayed by Mr. Farnum, is sent to Chile to investigate a mining mine. When she is imprisoned in a mine through an explosion, and news is conveyed to his wife that he has been killed. She escapes after days, but is created by his sufferings.

The denouement of the story, according to report, is one of the most dramatic ever seen on the screen.

"THE OUTCASTS OF POKER FLAT"

AT THE STAR

Harry Carey, in "The Outcasts of Poker Flat," will be seen at the Star Theatre Sunday. John Oakhurst, an honest gambler and philosopher, chases a rabble-rousing child, rescues a young lady from a cruel fate, loves her and is loved by her, but wants his adopted boy to marry the girl. This complicates this purpose, then becomes an outcast, so that she shares shame attached to his calling—that of gambler—will not allow the newlyweds to stay in the town, and in a terrible snow storm, in order that the rest of outcasts and the young married couple, who have searched for and found him in a rule child seeking shelter, shall like supreme sacrifice and is found by a searching party, buried beneath the snow.

"THE MIRACLE MAN"

AT THE PENDLETON SUN, MON, TUES

Hailed by critics as one of the greatest motion pictures ever produced, the Paramount "Miracle Man," starring the "Miracle Man," will be displayed at the Pendleton Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It is the screen version of George M. Cohan's play that scored so emphatically on Broadway some months ago, and which in turn was based on Frank T. Parker's famous novel. No picture in recent months has had so much praise lavished upon it for the dramatic quality of its story, its keen characterization, and beautiful acting.

The story of "The Miracle Man" centers around an old physician, the hills who has gained a reputation for his power to heal the sick and cripples. To him come the most desperate cases, the most desperate crooks for the slums of New York. Tom Burke, their leader, and the Prof, and his wife, have conceived the scheme of capitalizing the healer's gift and taking the money for themselves.

What follows is one of the most absorbing scenes ever unfolded on the screen. In the hands of such talented players as Thomas Meighan, Elmer Fair, Betty Compson, Lon Chaney, and the Leavenworths, the development of the chief characters under the influence of the heat and blind patriarchy, is portrayed with admirable skill.

MARY PICKFORD IN "THE MIRACLE MAN"

AT THE CRITTERION

"The Hoodlum," declared by critics to be the greatest screen success in Mary Pickford's screen history will be shown at the Critterion Theatre this Sunday, December 7.

"The Hoodlum" is essentially a romance of the fashionable Amy Burke, who desires to reside in the legitimate world, but is with her in the underworld, where she depends upon a successful bank on robbery.

"Plough's Black and White Toilet Preparations Always Please."

YOUR HAIR CAN BE MADE

Long, Soft, Glossy, Easy to Brush and Comb, and Dress to Become Your Style of Beauty.

The largest package, and the only pure white Hair Dressing now offered to the public for 25 cents.

Every package carries the guarantee of the manufacturer --- money refunded if not satisfied.

This mark on toilet preparations guarantees highest quality.

To Make Your Hair

long, soft, wavy and glossy, you must use a dressing that will destroy all dandruff, keep the scalp clean and free from disease and dirt. The ideal hair dressing must contain those ingredients that go directly to the roots of the hair and invigorates its growth. And naturally one prefers the use of a dressing that is pure white and delicately perfumed.

A White Hair Dressing

Black and White Hair Dressing is a white preparation of the highest quality. The oils and other ingredients used are recognized by beauty specialists everywhere as having merit for promoting the growth of the hair. Black and White Hair Dressing is delicately and delightfully perfumed—it has an odor that is distinctive. This new white hair dressing is the best that has ever been offered the public for the money.

How to Make Your Hair Long, Soft, Glossy and Wavy

Black and White Hair Dressing should be applied both night and morning, the length of time dependent upon the condition of your hair and scalp. The hair and scalp should first be thoroughly cleansed. [There is no better shampoo than Black and White Soap]. Dry the hair well, then gently massage little bits of Black and White Hair Dressing into the scalp. Do this night and morning for one week; then shampoo the hair again. You will find your scalp will be free from dandruff; your stiff, wiry, curly hair becoming longer, softer and easier to brush and comb.

How to Make Your Own Shampoo.

Black and White Soap, as sold in cake form, is about the best cleansing agent that you can use, but some prefer a liquid soap for shampoo. Do this—thinly shave about one-quarter of a cake of Black and White Soap and place in a pint of boiling water. It is ready for use as soon as it cools.

If your druggist cannot supply you with Plough's Black and White Hair Dressing and Black and White Soap, send 50c to us and both will be mailed postpaid, or, four packages of Black and White Hair Dressing and one bar of Black and White Soap [a $1.25 order] will be sent postpaid on receipt of $1.00.

You Can Make Good Money Easy

If you have just a little time to spare each day, you can make big money supplying your friends and neighbors with this new Black and White Hair Dressing. Write Plough Chemical Co., Dept. N., for full particulars.

FREE—A Birthday and Dream Book

Do you believe in dreams or the signs of the stars? If you do, this book will tell you their meaning. The price of the Birthday and Dream Book is 25c. But if you will send us the names of 5 of your friends who would be interested in Black and White Hair Dressing and Black and White Soap, a copy will be mailed you free.

NINETEEN-EIGHT PER CENT AMERICANISM

One of the unusual happenings recently is the replies made to the questionnaires sent out by the Committee of Forty-eight which has called a convention to meet in St. Louis next week. In the more than 10,000 questionnaires sent out, mentioning 2 million of subjects, lynching, disfranchisement and enforcing of the 14th and 15th Amendments were included, and the overwhelming verdict was against lynching and in favor of the enforcement of the Constitution.

We know little of this organization, but this sterling exhibition of true Americanism, at its very beginning, will command the attention of all thoughtful Negroes.

The American Legion might, with profit to it, imitate some of the principles of this organization, as to what constitutes true Americanism. Certainly their straddling policy adopted at their recent convention at Minneapolis, which will result in a denial of representation to a large majority of the colored men of the South, is a larger number of them from the South than white having fought in France, is a poor exhibition of Americanism on the part of the American Legion.

The Kansas City Post of the American Legion has appealed to the Mayor of this city to publish the meeting of the Committee of Forty-eight in this city. As between the announced position of the Committee and declared policy of the American Legion, we are in favor of the former.

The American Legion will learn that the ASSASSINATION of a southern Americanism must be ground out, not more words and the Kansas City Post have no fear St. Louis typifies true Americanism, and no advice upon the suppression of freedom of speech.

THE FIRST CUT OF A GENTLEMAN

Now comes the Savannah, Ga. Hawkeye, a newspaper published by a white man of that city, and it is the "cut" of a white man in the South, in order that he may be recognized by his fellow associates as a gentleman.

To be a gentleman, in other words, according to the Hawkeye a white man must have his Negro wife. What the Hawkeye says about the past is also true of the present. The present generation is maintaining the tradition.

The following editorial is a frank admission of the conditions that may be found in any of the Southern states, and is the best possible evidence of the hypocrisy of the white South on racial intermingling.

The Savannah, Ga. Hawkeye, in printing the story of the death of a wealthy and influential citizen, but brings to light one of the thousands of similar cases. It says: "Dying as he had lived, the colored woman next to his heart, Mrs. E. H. Chaplin, the wealthy Savannahian, left his entire estate to Bessie Lee, the Negro woman that had lived with him as his wife for thirty-seven years. A son thirty-five years old, with a bunch of children, also survive Chaplin. His children pass as colored in the community. Bessie Lee, his colored wife, as she was made the administratrix without bond, and she will take charge of his estate and proceed to enjoy the fruits of her life with the man who could not be her legal husband. The colored woman next to his heart, Mrs. E. H. Chaplin, that hundreds of other cases exist here is the belief of the old-timers, who know that the habits of certain rich men are. In the old days to have a Negro wife was considered the first cut of a gentleman."

The Negro voters of St. Louis are awakening and are demanding a place in the "Political Sun."

The fight for right engenders opposition. The true from the false ultimately rises out of the mist, and leaves the false bare and exposed.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear wife, Estelle Ridgeway (nee Dorsey), who left this earthly life one year ago today, December 5th, 1918.

A year has passed, my heart's still sore. As time goes on, I miss you more. Your loving smile, your loving face—None can fill your vacant place.

Sleep on, dear wife, and take your rest. Twas God who called you, and he knows best. He knows how weary, fade and die And others forget you, but never I.

Sadly missed by husband and daughter, Harry J. Ridgeway and Julia A. Ridgeway.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this method of sincerely thanking the friends and neighbors who sympathized with us during the illness and death of our beloved mother, Mary L. Smith, 21, 2408 Pennsylvania St., who died December 3rd, 1919.

Our mother, who was a devoted wife and mother, died peacefully at her home, 21, 2408 Pennsylvania St., on December 3rd, 1919.

In loving memory of my dear mother, Millie Rivers, Bridgeton, Mo., who was called from life to reward, Dec. 7, 1919.

In Him we believe; Oh, may you rest in peace; Oh, may you be at ease; Oh, may you be at ease; Oh, may you be at ease.
